NEWS AND NOTICES

.....

The McPherson Library now has a separate telephone line for incoming calls after 5 p.m. on weekdays, and after 12 noon on Saturdays. The number is 477-2422.

.....

DR. RUDOLF NEUHAUSER (department of modern languages) has been appointed Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Russian Studies at the University of Western Ontario, London. The appointment is effective July 1st.

.....

The University's lecture series, "The World of Learning", will bring Victoria's top senior students to the Gordon Head campus for two more Saturday sessions this month. On February 19, the group will hear PROFESSOR RONALD J. CHEFFINS (department of economics and political science) speak on "The Philosophy of Law". On February 26, DR. GEOFFREY O'GRADY (department of linguistics) reveals "How to Talk to a Man from Outer Space". All members of the faculty are welcome to the lectures, which start at 9:30 a.m. in the SUB, and to the discussions that follow.

MRS. HILDA MITCHELL is now secretary to the information officer, after transferring from the evening division. She succeeds WENDY DUTTON, now Mrs. John Carswell of Kingston, Ontario.

.....

Newcomers to the University staff include J. ARTHUR WEBB, director of campus planning, and WILLIAM G. BENDER, director of personnel. Both arrived recently from Calgary, and have moved into the Ewing Building.

Mr. Webb, who holds the degree of B.Sc. (Civil Engineering) from the University of Alberta, has been superintendent of buildings and grounds at that university's Calgary campus for the past four years. Here as in Calgary, he will assist the campus planning committee in charting University development, and advise departments in their planning of space requirements.

Mr. Bender, a UBC graduate (B.A.), will be responsible for personnel functions in the non-academic field. He has been active in similar fields in industry for the past 19 years.
